

SEPTEMBER 12, 2018 7PM
BAYER LEARNING CENTER
DUQUESNE UNIVERSITY

LET 'EM KNOW YOU'RE THERE

SPECIAL SCREENING AND PANEL DISCUSSION

Join us for a special screening of the short documentary Let 'Em Know You're There, a film about former Duquesne hoops legend Jim Tucker. The film will be followed immediately by a panel discussion featuring the filmmaker and local community leaders.

Mike Clark, MC

WTAE, Anchor

A valued member of the Pittsburgh community, Mike leads this incredible night that will touch on subjects the documentary pertains to: race, mental health, and basketball.

Chuck Cooper III, Panelist

Chuck Cooper Foundation, President/CEO and Founder

The son of the NBA pioneer whom he shares a name, Chuck will provide insight into the rich history of both his family and Duquesne hoops.

Field Humphrey, Panelist

Readily Apparent Media, Director/Editor

A filmmaker based out of Austin, Texas, Field will speak about the process of making the film and how he plans on using it as a philanthropic tool.

Alzheimer's Association Representative, Panelist

The film's subject, Jim Tucker, currently is battling Alzheimer's. A representative from a local Alzheimer's Association chapter will educate on the programs and services they offer to help those afflicted by the disease.

TIX ON SALE AT
EVENTBRITE.COM

readily apparent media

alzheimer's association®